BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

Augusta, Ga., is planning for a magnificent $125,000 modern hotel and a winter resort.

Thomas Pardue, a wealthy planter, near Sparta, Ga., was killed by a runaway Sunday night.

Poor Commissioner Louis H. Beck of Detroit, who recently attempted self-destruction, is recovering.

The British transport Montezuma, which left New Orleans, La., with mules for South Africa, has returned to New Orleans for another consignment.

On arriving at Southampton General Roberts was heartily cheered by thousands of people. As he boarded the Dunottar Castle between a guard of marines and blue jackets there was a renewed outburst of applause.

At a meeting of the United Irish societies in Chicago $8,000 was pledged toward paying for an ambulance service to be sent to the Boers. It is expected $100,000 will ultimately be realized in Chicago and vicinity.

Oscar Wilde, who has for some time been living in Paris, may have to fight a duel. According to the Echo de Paris, he became involved in an altercation in a restaurant Sunday evening with M. Richet, the explorer, and as a result cards were exchanged.

Thirty-five recruits for the Boer army were examined at Cincinnati. Those who passed will be forwarded soon. It is believed Dr. Leyds, the European representative of the Transvaal, is furnishing the means. The recruits will go from here to New York and expect thence to go via Antwerp to Delagoa bay.

A special from Vandalla, Ill., says: Arthur Pryor, aged 19, is charged in a warrant issued with the murder of his father, Lafayette Pryor, who was killed December 16 while asleep in bed. A warrant has also been drawn for the arrest of the dead man's widow, Mrs. Lydia Pryor. It is charged that she was an accessory after the fact.

Andrew Perto Schultzer, alias J. F. Klutchnski, who last February robbed a private bank of Wilno, Russia, and fled to Montana, where he was arrested, was shipped to Copenhagen.

He said before going aboard that he would make snort work of himself at sea, and the Russian police would be disappointed when the vessel arrives at Copenhagen.

A plum pudding craze has broken out in London. One firm has sold 600,000 pounds of pudding three weeks before Christmas. Surprises are now enclosed in these, ranging from buttons to gold sovereigns and half sovereigns, gold thimbles and diamond rings. One pudding ordered had in it a diamond and opal brooch worth $500, enclosed in a silver box.

General John S. Kountz, former commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, started a movement in Toledo to aid a found which General Alger is raising for the relief of the family of General Lawton. At a public meeting $1,500 was pledged and a committee was named to prosecute the work here in the city of General Lawton's nativity, and at his boyhood home, Maumee.

The state election committee met at Frankfort, Ky. The vacancy caused by the resignation of Chairman Pryor will probably be filled immediately by the election of John A. Fulton. Commissioner Ellis will resign and Commissioners Poyntz and Pryor will elect a successor to Ellis. Republicans claim that Governor Taylor has the right to make these appointments, and will probably undertake to enjoin the new commissioners from being sworn in.

Governor Steunenberg and Representative Wilson of Idaho and Representative Hull of Iowa, chairman of the house committee on military affairs, had a conference with the president as to the reimbursement of states which had paid the expenses of rejected volunteers for the Spanish war. Many volunteers journeyed to the rendezvous in their states and home again after being rejected for various reasons by the medical examining boards.

Following his custom of many years, General Russell A. Alger made a Christmas present to the newboys of Detroit. His gift was $250 to the Newboys' Association. At the boys' weekly Sunday night meeting the general made a patriotic address and the boys showed enthusiastic appreciation.

Roland Reed, the actor, is seriously ill at St. Luke's hospital, New York city, suffering from appendicitis and his road engagements for the holiday week have been cancelled.

Interest in the speed contest between the New Orleans and the Brooklyn on the voyage out of Manila has not yet subsided among naval officers. A calculation made at the navigation bureau shows that, deducting the stops made along the route, the actual steaming time of the two vessels was forty-eight days for the New Orleans and forty-six for the Brooklyn. In other words, the Brooklyn covered the 16,000 miles out to Manila in two days' less steaming time than the New Orleans.

Michigan has extended the $185,000 allowed by the legislature for the relief of the Spanish war volunteers.

Amiral Watson has cabled the navy department that investigation shows the officers of the Charleston are not blameable for the wreck of that cruiser.

George Petway, a well known man about town, was shot and killed in Waggoner's hotel at Nashville, Tenn., by Constable John Irwin. A few minutes later Irwin fell and expired almost instantly from a pistol wound inflicted by Petway. The tragedy is the outcome of former trouble between the two men.

EXTENT OF THE DUTCH UPRISING

Brother of President of the Free State Heads a Faction Opposed to War—Ask to Return to the Farm—Menacing Forces Closely Watching Each Other.

LONDON, Dec. 30.—Dispatches from all parts of South Africa emphasize the great enthusiasm among the troops and public occasioned by the appointment of Generals Roberts and Kitchener. The announcement that the former will have supreme command and that the latter will be chief of staff has largely dispelled the depression in Cape Colony caused by the recent reverses while the soldiers anticipate everything from the presence of "Bobs" from success in battle to caper beer.

Advices from Capetown dated December 24 say an investigation shows that the reported dissatisfaction among the Dutch in the Victoria West district has been overdrawn. The farmers, it is pointed out, are mostly land owners and will not risk the loss of their farms by rising.

A dispatch from Lourenzo Marquez, dated December 23, says a curious story is current, emanating from Boer sources, that Matt Steyn, brother of the president of the Orange Free State and 800 Free Staters have definitely refused to continue the war.

Matt Steyn, acting as spokesman of the party, is reported to have told the president that he was only authorized to intervene in the interest of peace and that the burghers did not feel that they were bound by his "unwarrantable conduct," especially as they ran the risk of confiscation of their property, and they simply desired to be permitted to farm in peace and proposed to immediately return to their farms.

Sir Charles Howard Vincent, member of Parliament for the central division of Sheffield and colonel of the Queen's Westminster volunteers, has been appointed to command the infantry division of the City of London Imperial regiment.

The text of Colonel Baden-Powell's proclamation to the burghers besieging Mafeking the gist of which has already been cabled comes from Lourenzo Marquez today. After asserting that the republicans cannot hope for foreign intervention, and pretending to relate the exact attitude of all the European powers, including Emperor William, who, the colonel said, "fully sympathizes with England," Baden-Powell makes the extraordinary statement that "the American government has warned others of its intention to side with England should any of them interfere."

STORY AN IMPROBABLE ONE.

Ministry Which Disposed of Colonies Could Not Live for a Day.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Luis A. M. P. A. Taveira, Portuguese consul general, said that he had no knowledge of any agreement regarding the sale of Delagoa bay, "but," added Senor Taveira, "this does not mean that such an agreement may not have been made."

It would not be likely to hear of it before the general public. It would not be surprising if a treaty had been made or is going to be made.

The Portuguese charge d'affaires in the United States, Ignacio de Costa Duarte, is at present in this city. He declared in an interview that, in his opinion, it would be well for Portugal to dispose of Delagoa bay and the East Africa possessions. They had always been a source of trouble and were likely to remain so. But it is not credible," said Senor Duarte, "that any treaty has been made by which Portugal has parted with all its colonial possessions. Any ministry that agreed to such a treaty would not remain in power a minute. If a treaty such as described in the German newspapers had been consummated, there would have been some hints of it published in Portugal to prepare the public mind."

AGENTS OF BOERS IN KANSAS CITY

Discovered by British Vice Consul Through Agents in Washington.

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 28.—The British vice consul here, Mr. Burroughs, made the statement today that agents of the Boers are at work in Kansas City getting recruits for the South African war under promise of free transportation, free lands and honorable citizenship after the war is over.

The plan, he states, is to forward such recruits to Philadelphia, which he says is the rendezvous of the British recruits. It is his belief, however, that not very many men have been sent from here to Philadelphia.

The British consul secured the names of the Boers' recruiting agents here by having someone write to the Boer agents in Washington asking for authority to recruit a force in this city, with the result that the applicant was put in communication with the Boer agents here.

Consul Burroughs states that scores of men have applied at his office for enlistment in the British army.

Defense for French Coast.

PARIS, Dec. 30.—The government will submit to the chamber of deputies at the beginning of January a bill providing for the defense of the French coasts and colonies and to increase the strength of the fleet. This does not involve an increase in the expenditure. The cost of the defense of the coasts and colonies is estimated at 120,000,000 francs, spread over two and a half years. This sum will be provided for by 50,000,000 francs annually set aside to pay off certain bonds and which become free this year by final repayment.

FLYER RUNS INTO A LOCAL.

Bad Accident on the Cheyenne Line of the Union Pacific.

DENVER, Colo., Dec. 30.—The Cheyenne flyer on the Union Pacific railroad crashed into the Boulder Valley train at Brighton, Colo., at 6 o'clock this morning. One man was killed and fourteen persons were injured as far as known, as follows:

Killed: WINFIELD RANDLEMAN, express messenger, Denver, body burned to a crisp.

Passengers injured: H. S. Hooker, Olin, I., head badly cut.

Mrs. Margaret Young, Mansfield, Mo., forehead cut.

S. G. Hurst, banker, Brighton, badly cut and bruised.

E. V. Davis, traveling salesman, Denver, head badly cut, back injured, ribs broken.

W. G. Tompkins, traveling salesman for Bradley, Alderson & Co., Kansas City, head badly cut, back injured.

C. H. Payne, Laramie, Wyo., head badly cut, right hand smashed.

Mrs. McCanna, Laramie, bruised. Trainmen and section men injured: Fred Laws, brakeman, Denver, right leg cut off.

Michael Regan, section foreman, Denver, head badly cut.

Thomas McGovern, section foreman, Denver, head badly cut.

John Kennedy, Denver, badly cut and bruised.

John Carrington, Denver, head cut.

Frank Sloan, Denver, cut and bruised.

Jerry Flannery, Denver, back hurt. Conductor McAllister of the Boulder Valley train was crazed by the accident. He attempted to jump into the burning wreckage and had to be forcibly restrained.

The Boulder Valley train left Denver a little late this morning, and, as usual, stopped at Brighton, which is the junction for the Boulder Valley line from the main line to Cheyenne. It was here that Banker Hurst of Brighton got on the train, just before the collision. The Cheyenne flyer, Union Pacific train No. 3, also left Denver late and in coming into Brighton in the early morning dusk ran into the rear end of the Boulder train, re-escorting two or three cars and derailing the passenger locomotive. The section gangs from the Denver yards and a half dozen passengers occupied the Boulder train. Two cars on the flyer were burned.

Mrs. Young was in the chair car with six children. None of the children were hurt.

Superintendent Deuel went out on a special train from Denver with Drs. Lemon and Taylor. They also took a lot of stretchers and other supplies. They found all the wounded at the Brighton hotel, being cared for by the citizens. The Brighton hose company was pouring water on the blazing baggage car and had discovered the remains of the dead baggage man.

Superintendent Deuel says he cannot understand why the Boulder train was not on the sidetrack. It had twenty minutes to clear the Cheyenne flyer. The Boulder train consisted of fourteen loaded freight cars and a heavy caboose. Engine No. 815, the big machine hauling the flyer, lies out on the prairie, a total wreck, as evidence how hard the crash was.

The wounded were brought to Denver about noon and taken to hospitals.

ABLE TO CONTROL THE PLAGUE.

Honolulu Authorities Take Prompt Action—Not Seriously Alarmed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 30.—Mail advices from Honolulu to the Associated Press regarding the bubonic plague situation say: President Dole, while realizing the seriousness of the situation, does not believe there is much cause for alarm. The president thinks there is no danger to those whose houses, persons and food are clean. He has unbounded confidence in the ability of the board of health to quickly stamp out the disease.

Some physicians say that the disease is not black plague. Public opinion is divided also. Many believe that if the plague were present in Honolulu the inhabitants of Chinatown would be carried off by the hundreds on account of the filthy condition of the district. Another interesting phase of the case is the fact that no Japanese have been attacked. They live in large numbers in the quarantined district.

The council of state met in extraordinary session on December 12 and appropriated $25,000 for immediate use of the board of health in combating the plague.

All of the district outside of Honolulu are in a clean condition and there is little danger that the plague will gain a foothold in the other islands.

Roland Reed Not Expected to Live.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Roland Reed, the actor, who was operated on Tuesday last at St. Luke's hospital, was reported to be resting quietly last night with little change in his condition for better or worse.

There is some doubt as to whether or not he was operated upon for cancer, as reported. His trouble was originally announced as appendicitis and later as cancer of the stomach and it was said that half of his stomach was removed.

His daughter has arrived and is constantly at his bedside with her mother. Many flowers and messages of sympathy arrive daily, but all but a few of the flowers are kept away from the sick room. It is feared that if the messages were read to him they might alarm him. While he is not expected to live everything possible is being done for him.

Trial of the Torpedo Boat.

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 30.—The torpedo boat destroyer Goldsborough which the Wolff & Zwickler Iron works of this city have completed, was given her first contractors' trial today on the Columbia river. Her performance today was considered remarkable by the naval officers on board. She steamed sixty miles at half speed without the slightest accident to her machinery. The Goldsborough, on her official trial, will be required to make thirty knots per hour.

TO INSTITUTE REFORM

The Governor General of Cuba to Correct Numerous Abuses.

PRISONERS TO BE SPEEDILY TRIED

Collector Bliss Finds Entire Judicial System Apparently Banded Against Him—Conspiracy to Defraud Among Officials—Affairs in General in Cuba.

HAVANA, Dec. 28.—Governor General Wood says one of the first things he looked into was the management of Cuban prisons. Investigation has proven that even among American prisoners there has been an average detention of five months without trial. There are many things calling for immediate attention, particularly in the matter of sleeping accommodations. Reforms will be quickly instituted in this respect and hammocks will be supplied so that the prisoners will not be compelled to sleep on the bare floors, as now is the case with those without friends or money. A few who are able to pay for them have cots. He intends to make weekly visits to the prisons until a majority of the existing abuses are abated and he is trying to devise means that will insure prompt trial for persons accused.

So far as the Havana penitentiary is concerned this has been found in a perfectly satisfactory condition. It is clean, airy, well-drained and well-ventilated and the inmates seem healthy.

A lawyer who recently visited several of the island prisons says the Charles T. Lewis report gives only a portion of the terrible truth. Early last January General Ludlow appointed a military board to inquire into the question. Over 800 prisoners were reported upon and General Ludlow issued orders for the release of more than 100. Before fifty had been discharged, however, General Brooke ordered a halt and the matter was referred to the cabinet secretaries, since which time practically nothing has been done. Men whom General Ludlow ordered released are still held after three or four years waiting without trial.

General Wood thinks that when his order goes into effect calling on all judicial officers and military commanders to send complete lists of prisoners waiting trial the congestion of untried prisoners will be relieved within fifteen days thereafter and he does not intend that similar conditions shall arise again.

Warrants are out for the rearrest of three of the custom house appraisers recently released. Two custom house brokers and six other men were arrested today in connection with the charge of defrauding the government, but were released in $2,000 bail each. The cases will be pushed to the utmost.

Considerable difficulty is being experienced in obtaining evidence with reference to most of the importers and their employees, because nearly all the best families in Havana have relatives who are believed to be implicated. The investigation shows a widespread conspiracy to defraud.

Heretofore Collector Bliss, when he has had persons arrested for fraud, has been referred to the governor general's secretaries and he had found the entire judicial system apparently banded against him. Now the matter is taken up by the military authorities, who are determined that decisions shall be impartial.

WILL TAKE IT UP AGAIN.

Rites Go Into Effect January 1, but Re-classification May Follow.

NEW YORK, Dec. 28.—As a result of the protest of merchants against the reclassification of merchandise by the railways and of interviews of members of the Merchants' association in this city, with trunk line officials, the latter have said that this classification will go into effect January 1, but they have promised that the matter of a readjustment of classification, which it is claimed by the merchants, will hurt their business, will be taken up again by the traffic officials and executive officers of the road, who will sift every grievance to the bottom and meet the merchants half-way in making proper readjustment.

LOCKETT ROUTS INSURGENTS.

Americans attack a Strong Force Near San Mateo.

MANILA, Dec. 28.—Colonel Lockett, with a force of 2,500, including artillery, attacked this morning a strong force of insurgents entrenched in the mountains near Montalban, about five miles northeast of San Mateo.

The enemy were completely routed, the Americans pursuing them through the hills amid which they fled in every direction. Four Americans were wounded. The Filipino loss was large, resulting from heavy infantry and artillery fire for three hours into the trenches.

Smallpox Among Indians.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Smallpox among the Indians in the Indian territory and at Crow Creek agency in South Dakota and other reservations has assumed serious phases. Congress immediately after reconvening will be asked for an appropriation of $50,000 to stamp out the epidemic. The department has been telegraphed to from a number of agencies to forward vaccine points, but is confronted by a lack of funds. In the Indian territory Agent Wright has employed physicians to attend to the quarantine stations.

Trainmen Were at Fault.

LEWISTON, Idaho, Dec. 28.—Although ten days have passed since the tragic Northern Pacific wreck in Kendrick canyon, and the body of the fifth and last dead trainman has been taken out, the mass of railroad iron has not yet been cleared away. It is piled so high that it has turned the channel of Potlach creek. The inquiry into the cause of the wreck just completed shows that the trainmen were at fault. They had eighteen flat cars, loaded with steel rails, for the Clearwater cut-off, and two locomotives.

MAINE DEAD AT REST.

Solemn Ceremonies Conducted at the Arlington National Cemetery.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Upon the windy heights of Arlington cemetery the Maine dead, brought from Havana by the battleship Texas, today were laid away in their final resting places with simple religious services and the impressive honors of war, in the presence of the president, members of his cabinet, officers of the army and navy and other representatives of the government. A cabinet officer, surveying the flag-draped coffins before the ceremony began, said:

"The lives of those men cost Spain her colonies."

But there was no note of triumph in the grim scene today. With a touch of sadness and solemn gravity the nation performed its duty to the dead and gave its defenders a Christian burial at home in soil hallowed by patriotic dead.

A soft mantle of snow covered the earth, muffled the horses' hoofs, the slow-turning carriage wheels and the tramp of soldiers and sailors as they approached the burial place.

The site is a commanding one. In front of the broad bosom of the ice-fettered Potomac; beyond the shaft of Washington, the dome of the capitol and the sprawling city; to the right, the choked embrazures of old Fort McPherson and between the graves of the heroic dead of Santiago; to the left the stately mansion of Lee and to the rear through the vistas of snow-laden pines and cedars the silent army of the patriotic dead of the civil war sleeping rank upon rank in their last bivouac. The caskets interred today ranged row and row. Over each was spread an American ensign upon which lay a wreath of smilax leaves. Around the enclosures, shoulder to shoulder, the yellow of their coat linings forming a hand of color, were drawn up the cavalry of Fort Meyer; to the right was a battalion of marines from the navy yard, with their spiked helmets and scarlet capes turned back; to the left a detachment of jacksies from the Texas, in navy blue in the flag-draped stand in the rear the president and his cabinet.

Admiral Dewey, Major General Miles and a distinguished group of officers of the army and navy in their showy dress uniforms, while all around pressed the throng of people who had braved the snow biting cold to pay their last tribute to the dead. Among these were many relatives and friends of those who had been lost in the disaster.

There was a tender appropriateness in the fact that Captain Sigbee, who was in command of the Maine when it was blown up, had charge of the ceremonies in honor of his men and that Father Chidwick, who was chaplain of the Maine, was there to perform the last rites. Three others who lived through that awful night at Havana harbor were at the side of the graves of their comrades—Lieutenant Commander Wainwright, who was executive officer of the Maine and who sunk the Pluton and the Furor at Santiago; Lieutenant F. C. Bowers, who was assistant engineer of the Maine, and Jeremiah Shea, a fireman on the Maine who was blown out of the stokehole of the ship through the debris, escaping unharmed most miraculously.

Slowly, solemnly, the full marine band broke the deep hush, putting forth the sad, sweet strains of the dirge, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," and there were twitching of lips and wet eyes as Chaplain Clark of the naval academy at Annapolis came forward and took his place under a canvas covered shelter in the open space in front of the dead.

With the sounding of taps, the ceremonies ended. The president and his party and other distinguished guests, the military and the crowds then withdrew. Before leaving Captains Sigbee introduced Jeremiah Shea to the president. When asked for an explanation of the mystery of his escape by the president, Shea responded as he did to a similar inquiry from Father Chidwick at the time of the disaster:

"I don't know how I got out. I was blown out. I guess I must have been an armor-piercing projectile."

And thus, after two years, the dead of the Maine have been brought home and in ground reserved for the nation's heroes, have been buried with full military honors and in the service of their faith.

CAN GET INDIANS ANYWAY.

Not Necessary to Secure Formality of Department Consent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—Since the recent announcement of the new policy of the interior department denouncing wild Indians in exhibitions the department has been deluged with both written and oral inquiries. Colonel W. F. Cody has protested that the action will nearly ruin his business.

He sent a representative here who urged Commissioner of Indian Affairs Jones to make an exception in his case. A number of other interested parties have also called at the Indian bureau on the subject. A large number of letters on the subject, mostly endorsing the department's attitude, have come by mail.

Commissioner Jones said there would be no change in the department's policy and that he was convinced the exhibitions have a demoralizing tendency and retard Indian progress. It is recognized, however, that, failing the government consent, Indians may be contracted with and withdrawn from the reservations and exhibited without the present formality of securing official action.

Bouncing Townsiders.

CHAMBERLAIN, S. D., Dec. 29.—Ejection papers issued by the federal court at Sioux Falls have been served on the townsie claimants on the tract known as North Chamberlain, under the direction of counsel for the homestead claimant, Captain H. J. King. The townsiders are given thirty days in which to show cause why they should not vacate.

The dispute dates back to 1855, when the Snow Creek reservation was thrown open by President Arthur. The townsiders declare that it will be carried to the court of last resort before they will vacate.

An extraordinary phenomenon has been noticed with regard to chestnut trees in a street in Brussels, since the installation of the electric tram cars. The foliage begins to turn brown and drop early in August, to bud and even blossom again in October. The trees on the opposite side of the tramway behave like ordinary trees, for they lose their foliage in the late autumn and do not put forth fresh blossoms until the spring.

The December Atlantic might in same senses almost be called a Chicago number, for three of the most striking and salient articles are by Chicago authors. Harriet Monroe's "The Grand Canon of the Colorado" is a brilliant and effective sketch of nature and natural scenery; Mrs. Ella W. Peattie's lively "The Artistic Side of Chicago" pictures the aesthetic, artistic, educational, and literary features of the great city, while the short story "The Detectives," by Will Payne, is a capital example of the power of Chicago writers in romantic fiction. Chicago has reason to be proud of her contributions to this number of the representative magazines of America.

La Porte, Texas.

The progress of the construction work at La Porte, Texas, the future great deep-water shipping point at the head of navigation on Galveston Bay on the Gulf of Mexico, is progressing favorably. The wharves and switching tracks are nearing completion and the work on the streets and on the sewerage and water systems is now under way. Mr. I. R. Holmes, the general manager of the La Porte Improvement Company and the La Porte Wharf and Channel Company, is personally superintending the improvements. Mr. Holmes makes his headquarters at the Sylvan Hotel and visitors to La Porte during the next six weeks and before the time of the first general La Porte sale, which will be held in February, 1900, should introduce themselves to Mr. Holmes and allow him to extend to them facilities for getting a thorough understanding of the conditions surrounding the La Porte enterprises.
